Helping Hands of Warrick County, Inc. is a community – based incentive program that provides new and like-new clothing and supplies for children newborn up to 24 months of age. Helping Hands of Warrick County, Inc. operates a store that allows families to exchange vouchers they have earned by taking part in local programs and services to benefit their babies and young children.

Helping Hands of Warrick County, Inc. is an incentive program developed to encourage pregnant women to seek early and preventive health care to improve pregnancy outcomes. It will also encourage parents with children newborn through age 24 months to get their children immunized. This will greatly improve the health status of the children in our community and encourage parents to participate in educational programs in order to improve their parenting skills.

This committee of volunteers has no political or religious affiliation.
